

SOME WEBSITES YOU MIGHT FIND INTERESTING

www.woodturner.org- the website for the American Association of Woodturners www.collectorsofwoodart.org – designed for collectors, this site showcases the work of dozens of world class wood artists, many with links to their websites www.kjmagnetics.com - a company specializing in rare earth magnets; dozens of sizes and many interesting articles and tutorials www.riogrande.com - jewelry making supplies, tools, metals, gemstones, lots of interesting things www.widgetsupply.com - Dremel bits and accessories, small tools www.puretimber.com - cold bendable wood products including sample packs of cutoffs to experiment with www.micromark.com – company specializing in products for model building. Lots of small tools, materials, etc.

www.dickblick.com – art supplies, including Golden brand paint (my preferred brand of airbrush paint) www.homesteadfinishingproducts.com – supplier of finishing products, also has extensive forum answering questions about finishing www.turntex.com – manufacturer of Cactus Juice, a stabilizing resin for wood. A very knowledgeable source of info on stabilizing wood www.alumilite.com- manufacturer of Alumilite casting resin with lots of info and tutorials on casting www.easywoodtools.com – Manufacturer of carbide tipped turning tools and accessories, all made in the US www.youtube.com- I have several videos of my demos on youtube. You can see them at the following links:

www.youtube.com/watch?v=IAT7Cy0HPpM split bowl demo www.youtube.com/watch?v=u0X_O50Rji0 – suspended vessel demo www.youtube.com/watch?v=u0X_O50Rji0 – thin stem and goblet demo